THIS WEDNESDAY'S TEACHING

If you know and love the Lord Jesus then you are able to help the suicidal person more than you realize. You may not feel prepared but you have been given all you need to help. Writing to believers in Rome, the Apostle Paul said to the whole church, not just the church leaders, 'I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another' Romans 15:14. Please come and be a part of our hopeful discussion this Wednesday night.

NEXT SUNDAY'S MESSAGE

The believer has a responsibility to be loving toward one another in regards to amoral issues. The apostle Paul pointedly and practically discusses how we can love one another within the church by how we deal with issues that are opinion fueled. We will be studying in Romans in chapter 14 through 15. Come and be a part of the discussion.

SMALL GROUPS Join a Small Group! Groups meet on the second or fourth Sundays of the month for a Bible-centered discussion. This is a great opportunity to get to know people. Everyone is welcome. Questions? Call 759-6632

So Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for Him.
